

CONTENTS

I Articles

- (1) On the Conversion of Educational Policy by the Kaitakushi (Ministry of Development in Hokkaido): The 1874 Formation of the Bureau of Educational Affairs.
INOUE Takaaki
- (2) Reexamination of the Formation of the 1879 Educational Code
YUKAWA Fumihiko
- (3) The Realities of Hokkaido Elementary Schools under the Regulations of Elementary Schools and Shōgaku-kan'ika:
The Cases of Oyafune Town, 9 Towns and 3 Villages in Ishikari District
SAKAMOTO Noriko
- (4) Department Store Training:
The Modernization of Salesclerk Training and Its Effects
EGUCHI Kiyoshi
- (5) The Policy to Control Educational Journals in the Early 1940s:
A Consideration of the National Education Publishing Company and the Institute on National Education
KOBAYASHI Yuta
- (6) The Establishment of Article 26 of the Constitution of Japan:
The Meaning of the Amendment from "Elementary Education" to "Ordinary Education"
OHSHIMA Hiroshi
- (7) The Development of Korean School Policy in Kyoto City during the Occupation of Japan: Negotiations between Government Authorities and Korean Groups
MATSUSHITA Yoshihiro
- (8) A study of the Junior High Night School in Postwar Japan:
The Establishment of Japanese Language Classes in Tokyo Junior High Night Schools
OTAWA Masae
- (9) Girl's Secondary Education and Family Education in the First Half of France's Third Republic: A Study of the Weekly Magazine, Le Petit Echo de la Mode
IOKA Mizuhi

II Program of the 54th Annual Meeting
International Symposium: What is Modernization of Education in the East Asia?

III Recent Trends in the Study of History of Education

IV Special Report
Open Seminar: Old Discipline, New Direction:
A Summary of 30 Years of Disciplinary Construction of Education History since the Adoption of the Reform and Opening-up Policy

V Book Reviews

VI Book Notes