

CONTENTS

- (1) Secondary Education Curriculum in Gogaku in the Early Meiji Era
MORITA Tomoyuki
-
- (2) A Rural Private School in the Mid-1880s:
A Study of Curriculum Revision at Chōzenkan in Niigata Prefecture
IKEDA Masanori
-
- (3) The Development of the Camp School and Seaside School Programs in the Taisho Period: Focusing on the Case of Tokyo
NOGUCHI Hodaka
-
- (4) The Implementation of a Physical Fitness Course in Nara Women's Higher Normal School Attached to the National Elementary School :
The Problem of Discipline Training
SUZUKI Akisato
-
- (5) The Role and Significance of Emigration Studies in Agricultural High Schools in Occupied Okinawa: Details Regarding Formation to Abolition of Emigration Studies
KOBAYASHI Shigeko
-
- (6) Korean Medical Mission for Childbirth and Childcare at the Severance Hospital in the 1910's: The Existence of "Bible Women"
IRIE Yukako
-
- (7) Educational History of Indigenous Peoples in Taiwan
under the Education Guidelines for Kyōikusho (1928)
KITAMURA Kae
-
- (8) The Relationship between Parents, Children, and Schoolmasters in Early Modern England: The Household as a Source of Authority over Education
SHIBATA Kennichi
-